This is to certify & acknowledge that Igus GmbH has been supplying and supporting the world class Igus products through Igus India Pvt. Ltd. for past many years in India. We have used Igus products (Energy chain systems, Chain flex cables and high performance Iglide polymer bearings) consistently over the past years and found them to be of high quality and reliability.

Moreover Igus India with their efficient team of highly qualified professional engineers and wide network (head quartered at Bangalore with warehousing facility, machine shop and branch offices at 10 other locations including all metros like Delhi, Mumbai, Chennai and Calcutta) have been proven to provide complete solutions. Their sales and after sales support (whenever rarely required) has been found prompt, reliable and efficient weather it is required at our works or on site.

We wish Igus India all success and look forward to long standing relationship with Igus.
